Che Roga provides 3 meals a day...

Liberation Ministries, through the generosity of its partners, has been supporting this orphanage for over nine years. Many miracles of transformation have taken place in the children's lives over the years; the future of Paraguay is in their hands.

A Paraguayan Senator said "The 'Che Roga' Orphanage was an example for other orphanages in the country to follow." The happy atmosphere and the evident love and faith of the children in the Lord Jesus, is a joy to behold.

The arrival of one of the new mini buses given through the generosity of one of our partners.

The newly acquired building, for training the teenage boys in carpentry skills. They make all their own furniture on the compound and are now making furniture to sell.

Maria Silvera Castrillon started the orphanage in 1989 when she discovered a little two and half year old girl fending for herself on the streets of Encarnacion, Paraguay. Over the intervening years the Che Roga has cared for literally hundreds of children; many have now left the orphanage to play a useful role in society in all kinds of professions. Silvana (who has a degree in child psychology) and her husband Julio (who was once one of the boys in Che Roga) share in the leadership with Maria.
